

*The Givers
Gathering
Co-op
Guide*

Hello soul family.

If you are reading these words, there is a good chance you are at a major crossroads in your life. You have reached a breaking point where you are now open to a new way. A new way of living that is abundant for all involved. A way of being and living that is in balance with Mother Nature.

This is the clean slate you have been praying for.

It is the end of the old 3D slave matrix, and the beginning of 5D Heaven on Earth. This is a quantum leap in your being. We are in a transitional period in humanity's Ascension.

As these old societal structures break down, it is time to take the reins of what is rightfully yours; being your own sovereign being. In order to pass through this transition in harmony, we must let go of all attachments.

Everything we thought we knew must be dissolved in order to make room for New Earth and all the blessings. Trusting God's Divine Plan that the meek will inherit the Earth.

We must do our part. Moving forward requires a deeper level of surrender into the unknown. Trusting your heart pings, Angel guidance and magical synchronistic events, is critical.

We all carry a piece of the Divine plan. We are the system busters. We are here to create the new paradigm where all are valued, where we all feel safe to heal. We recognize our connection as one with God, where the "Golden Rule" now takes precedence in our life. We are love, not the programmed fear frequencies that have kept us in separation. We have all been contracted to be here to transform all these lower frequencies to the higher. This massive shift in consciousness is bringing people together from all walks of life.

In order to best assist you in these transformations it is important to take a zoomed out perspective and not to take your current circumstances personally. We are first and foremost energetic beings. See yourself as an energetic match to the frequency you are attracting in your life, which is why you are more than capable of transforming and manifesting something different.

Vibrating at a higher frequency alters your external reality for the better. Always keep in your heart that God would not give you anything you couldn't handle. Breaking out of the EGO box, you will discover a new found freedom. Fear can no longer dictate your actions. We are Rainbow Warriors of love anchoring in Heaven on Earth.

Nothing can stop what is coming, you are the catalyst for this new foundation of love everywhere present.

The purpose of this guide is to assist you through the rainbow bridge of transitioning from 3D to 5D Unity Consciousness.

Gathering together in physicality is the ideal next step.

Living together in community is essential for our souls to expand exponentially into Unity Consciousness.

By pooling together our individual resources and cutting ties with 3D attachments to personal belongings, we help one another embody and anchor our Higher Selves of Divine Non-Attachment and Unconditional Love.

These are the moments where Consciousness is pushing us to take a leap of faith, and gather together to be the Divine Examples for others.

Simplify, Consolidate & Manifest From The Heart

There is a big movement developing across the United States and the planet, a shift in consciousness where people now see the value in simplifying their lives and gathering with other conscious beings who care about the wellbeing of others and the planet. Imagine a beautiful piece of land with plenty of RV parking where we can all bring our tiny homes together. Our Global Earth family is coming together like never before. There is a resurgence in communing with soul brothers and sisters again; To live a happy and fulfilled life together. God's plan is inclusive of everyone. We each have a leadership role on this new Earth. When you can begin to trust and surrender to the Divine Plan, all pieces will begin to fall into place for you.

This is uncomfortable for the EGO. This is why the journey requires spiritual growth and awareness. You are not your EGO, The EGO is a program of separation not created by GOD. You can think of the EGO as Edging God Out. Who we are is love and we are all one with GOD. This is exactly what the program wants you to forget. Keeping you in fear and survival mode distracts you from your true calling and gifts. Fear based frequencies is all the EGO has to keep you down and in separation. With this awareness you can now transform and flip it all to Love. You are a Divine Being, a Rainbow Warrior, a Royal Angel who simply forgot about your true purpose. This amnesia only dissolves as fast as you detach from the details. Let the feelings guide the way. Deep in your heart you know that you can no longer avoid this calling.

You are a super manifestor and co-creator of Heaven on Earth.

Ego Death Ceremony

All who are on this journey to gather must address their personal energy. Dissolving the EGO program mind is the number one priority as we move forward. An EGO Death Ceremony is very empowering. This should be done more than once and as often as these lower frequencies come into your energetic space to be transformed.

Starting Your journey

1. Set the Intention And Manifest

Perform a ceremony to manifest a gathering with your soul family.

Writing a ceremony is easy and very powerful. If you have never done one, this is an excellent way to take your power back and practice simple alchemy.

On a piece of paper you can write the date and title, in this case “Givers Gathering Ceremony” and write out your intentions with gratitude. Gratitude is the highest frequency for manifestation. You can use the words “Thank you

God for all the Givers Gathering in Love to anchor in Heaven on Earth. I surrender to Love and let Love handle the details.” “Thank you God for dissolving all fear based frequencies within my field, thank you for higher-self embodiment now and immediately”.

Write down whatever you feel guided to, there is no length requirement, simply full loving intention in your writing and choice of words. Once you have written your ceremony go outside or find a safe place to burn your ceremony. Read it out loud then burn it. Dispose of ashes and boom! You are well on your way to manifesting the greatest gathering on the planet.

2. Reflect on your External Attachments

Can you downsize your belongings to fit into 1 suitcase? What is really important to you? Many beings have a lot of clutter and memorabilia in their space that they have accumulated throughout their life. Decluttering and gifting away the bulk of your belongings allow room for new energy to come in. We cannot pour pure clean water into a bucket full of murky water. Likewise there is no room for Source to bless us with grander experiences if we have an already filled space full of our possessions.

Really looking at our physical and emotional attachments is a cornerstone of our Ascension journey. Gathering with givers also means gathering with individuals who are committed to anchoring in their Higher-Self. Which means dissolving the EGO Program mind 100%. When the household is committed to this, it allows for safe transformation on behalf of every individual. We are all divine love mirrors and gathering in a home with individuals who have that awareness speeds up transformation and embodiment of your higher-self.

3. Reach Out To Others

Do you have friends who are already on a similar journey as you?

Connect with new people either locally or on the internet.

It is essential to feel into creative solutions for your current situation.

Surround yourself with beings who are on the same soul path. What local or online groups are you a member of? You could start a new group both online or locally to open up the opportunity for like hearted beings to gather.

If we want to see changes in the world,
we must first walk our talk and be the change.

4. Be Resourceful

If you already own land or property, ask yourself if you are ready to open up your home and heart to soul sisters and brothers out there looking to gather.

Perhaps you own a large block of land where others can come and set up tents. Do you live alone in a big house with spare rooms?

Consider opening your home to extended soul family.

A Quantum Leap of Faith

There is no one way to do this. However what is common amongst people ready to make this decision is their willingness to surrender, to let go and jump into the unknown. Completely trusting that God has a Divine plan laid out for you.

If you haven't already acquired land, the ultimate goal would be to secure land and build these new 5D Communities. In the interim, the first step is to gather with your soul family. Even if you haven't secured land, everyone can gather their resources and set themselves up to live under one roof or downsize to an RV or a Tiny Home on wheels. Especially if you are paying rent, you can gather with others who are in the same boat as you and put your resources together to secure a larger home or finance an RV together. The payment will be significantly less than if you were to do this alone.

The name of the game is gathering; gathering resources, gathering loved ones, gathering with those who are ready to make this quantum leap together.

Community & Honoring Equal Energy Exchange

As humanity gathers all across the globe and moves in together, it is important to address the energetics of the household. We begin with ourselves; the temple which houses our spirit. Recognize the programming and conditioning you took on to transform. We have an Ascension Guide written that outlines the different vibrations of consciousness in more detail and if you haven't done so already, you can download it free from our website www.5DFullDisclosure.org . This is not meant to be complicated in any way, in fact it is a lot more simple than we think. That's simply it, we are moving away from overthinking and moving into full feeling. Keep in your heart that Love simplifies.

As this gathering begins to manifest into your reality, getting a good innerstanding of what everyone brings to the table will help establish a basis for different roles. We all come from different walks of life but all have something uniquely beautiful to contribute to this gathering. Utilizing everyone's talent is important. Establishing 1 or 2 people to handle finances who have experience and are more emotionally mature will ensure stability through this transition. Living within our means and utilizing state funded organizations such as food banks can assist greatly as we transition. There are also government programs designed to help people in need or for those you have gone "homeless" in their transition. Society, especially in the US puts a stigma around utilizing these sorts of services, however it's important to recognize that during this transition these resources are set up to ease and support your transition. Feel into it as a form of NESARA, a soft roll out of universal income for all.

Setting up an equal playing field where you all agree to transform lower dysfunctions and flip it all to love is essential. Equal Energy Exchange simply put is not being a taker. In other words we all have something to offer our group, so sitting around not doing anything to contribute to the betterment of the household is not honoring equal energy exchange. The givers are gathering and the takers are taking themselves. This is the end of corporations as we know them and the beginning of co-operations.

Right Action is when you push energy to the highest timeline for the greater good of all. For example, Right Action can be getting things in order and cleaning. Doing the small tasks to keep energy flowing and expanding. Another example is doing your laundry and actually putting your clothes away as soon as you're done folding them. This helps energy flow and removes stagnation from your space. And now that we will be living with a group of people, everyone pulling their own weight and ensuring a clean environment is critical. This may seem like common sense for those who are used to having responsibility and have experience living with others, but for many who have lived on their own, these will be novel concepts.

Having a safe space for healing in unity is also important. Many of us have experienced childhood traumas such as rejection, shame, guilt and unworthiness. As such we have inadvertently embodied personalities that only perpetuate blame, external validation and separation. We need to dissolve these personalities that do not serve love and unity consciousness. Gathering in community and being in close proximity with others will naturally highlight core wounds that we have carried. We can heal our differences. These energetic dynamics are going to play out as you get to know one another. Having discernment is something you are going to learn and acquire through your interactions. For example, it is important to know the difference between enabling and unconditional love.

Enabling occurs when someone's dysfunction is allowed to play out without speaking your truth or observations about the other being's lower patterns of (ego) behavior. An example of enabling would be if someone in your community is not contributing to the housework and you enable them by not speaking up to let them know of their actions, which is a form of energy taking rather than energy giving.

Service to All

Love is All and We Serve the All

Having a structure for all members in your hub where all come to an agreement of Service to Love, will set up a strong foundation for all to grow from. We encourage everyone to refer to the Four Agreements by Don Miguel Ruiz as a practical way of integrating some general guidelines for your home. It is good practice to write them out on a board and have them publicly displayed in your home.

The Four Agreements

1. Be impeccable with your word
2. Don't take anything personally
3. Don't make assumptions
4. Always do your best

Hold an initial meeting with your new community hub to further discuss these simple love based agreements and Unity goals. Bring everyone on the same page. Make team meetings a frequent practice. The reason this is important is that triggers will come up. Your community's unified field will continually expand and as a result your home will be like a constant "House of Love Mirrors".

Everyone will feel an acceleration in their growth, spiritually and emotionally. It is good practice to reflect on your own dysfunctions. Your home is a safe space for all the lower ego frequencies of wants, needs, desires to come to the surface and be dissolved. Our home is our first co-operation and just like New Earth we must all honor "equal energy exchange" and "right action". It starts with taking accountability for your actions and the willingness of all members of the community to shift to the highest timeline.

From Corporations to Co-Operations

The end result of these gatherings will lead us to free energy and 5D technology never accessible before. As we reach higher and higher frequencies of being, we start matching the higher frequencies of these technologies. For example “replicators” are not a far reach when we all begin to unify and care about one another. However, we are not quite there yet. In these moments all involved in the gathering should be involved in some sort of project or creative endeavor to honor equal energy exchange. A good example would be working the garden and tending to farm animals in exchange to living in someone else’s land.

It is highest for all to be contributing equally. The activities in the kitchen can be used as a reflection of whether everyone is honoring equal energy exchange. Everyone should ideally be contributing towards preparing, cooking meals as well as cleaning up. Rostering housework only works at one level. Ultimately, service is about doing something out of pure intentions, joy and gratitude. Serving meals in resentment or lower feelings of obligation affects the field and is not in alignment with the highest timeline.

On The Rainbow Bridge of Transition

Uniting together will pave the way through this transitional rainbow bridge. This is not just your ordinary gathering. This is a 5D gathering of givers and spiritual warriors ready to make a difference in their present environment.

Follow your hearts and Angel guidance.

We are here to support you on your journey to being your greatest grandest version and manifesting Heaven On Earth.

Go For It!
